

PA's NEW VOTER ID LAW: What you need to know NOW!

Pennsylvania's new Voter ID law may make it significantly harder for seniors, those with disabilities, minorities, college students, LGBTQ individuals, and 18 year-olds to vote.

Monday, July 23, 7pm

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

JCC Levinson Hall 4738 Forbes Ave. Squirrel Hill

Learn what's at stake.

Make sure you and your neighbors can vote.

PANELISTS INCLUDE

- ACLU of Greater Pittsburgh Executive Director, Barb Feige
- League of Women Voters of Greater Pittsburgh Past Co-President, Arlene Levy
- Allegheny County Division of Elections Manager, Mark Wolosik
- State Representative Dan Frankel
- Allegheny County Executive Rich Fitzgerald

SPECIAL GUEST Mayor Sophie Masloff

Sponsored by members of the Pittsburgh Jewish Social Justice Roundtable

The Roundtable is a collaboration of synagogues, direct service providers, advocacy groups, and foundations in the Pittsburgh region who work collaboratively to advance their shared vision of tikkun olam (world repair) at the state and national levels.

Event Allies

ACLU of Greater Pittsburgh • Black Political Empowerment Project (B-PEP) • Coalition of Labor Union Women
Common Cause Pennsylvania • Disability Rights Network of PA • Equality Partners of Western PA
Just Action, LLC • Just Harvest • League of Women Voters of Greater Pittsburgh • NAACP • PA Center for Women and Politics at Chatham University • Pittsburgh Interfaith Impact Network (PIIN) • thomascwaters.com
Vibrant Pittsburgh • Women and Girls Foundation of Southwest PA • Women's Law Project of PA • YWCA of Greater Pittsburgh • State Representative Jake Wheatley, Jr. • State Representative Dan Frankel

